I have been blessed to marry into the Faught family, including know Uncle Al and Aunt Jeanne. Sweet, caring, grand, giving.... they both were gifts from God. Now it is their turn to have the family reunion in heaven... stuffed cabbage and all!

It will be a quieter and less joyful time without Aunt Jeanne... but she is perfectly cared for now. Memories to keep us strong until it is our turn!!!

Jeanne always had a smile for everyone and when she talked about her family, the smile became radiant. She loved her kids and those precious grandkids. Keep the memories of she and your Dad. You all were blessed and we all have lost a special lady..May the peace of the Lord be with you at this very sad time.
