“ To the Thoburn Family:
I was deeply sorrowed to hear that Tom had passed away. It was a pleasure to work for and with him, even though it was only for a short while. Tom knew more about the successful manufacture of electric motors than most of those who followed him in that position rolled into one. I would like to pass on my sincere regrets to his family. We didn't always see eye to eye, but I learned a lot from Tom that helped me in my remaining years at work there. May he rest in peace.
