

Thomas Charles Dunigan

April 1, 1947 - April 19, 2017

Thomas Charles Dunigan, age 70 formerly of Old Washington, passed away at his home in Akron on Wednesday, April 19, 2017. He was born in Cambridge, on April 1, 1947, a son of the late Pryse Dunigan and Hilda M. (Philabaum) Dunigan.

Mr. Dunigan was a 1965 graduate of Zane Trace High School. He was a retired steel worker and a welder. He was a life member of the NRA and a founding member of the Guernsey County Sportsman for Conservation Club. He was also a member of several Hot Rod Associations. He loved going to car shows where he often entered his cars. Tom enjoyed hunting, the outdoors and oil painting, he always had a dog around as a companion.

Tom leaves: a son Pryse Jonathon "P.J." Dunigan of Cambridge; a daughter Erin Culleen Dunigan of Old Washington; a granddaughter Hayley Marie Dunigan; a sister Marsha (& David) Finley of New Concord; a brother Bill (& Sue) Dunigan of West Lafayette; a nephew Sean Finley; three nieces Danielle Finley, Ashley Dunigan and Amanda Dunigan; and the mother of his children Mary Jane Dunigan of Old Washington.

Memorial visitation will be on Wednesday, April 26, 2017 at Bundy-Law Funeral Home from 4 to 6 pm. Tom's online tribute wall may be viewed and signed at www.bundy-lawfuneralhome.com.

“ Condolences to the Dunigan family. I remember Tom and my days at Washington High School, later Zane Trace, and the time I got off the bus at Tom's house. We did not always agree but he was a good guy and a classmate for all 12 years. I know he will be very missed.
