“ Tom and Norma were always very generous to their nieces and nephews (and everyone they knew) as they had no children of their own. I remember when my husband and his twin brother (Tom's nephews) graduated from college; Tom and Norma presented them with a very nice graduation gift, and we could not thank them enough. I myself didn't know them as well as many others in the family, as we lived 2500 miles out of state. However, they were there for our wedding, and we would see them every time we were back in Ohio to visit.

When my husband's father Sam Hill (Tom's older brother) passed away a few years ago, I had a very nice conversation with both Norma and Tom, and learned some very interesting family history. Tom was so very kind and complimentary in that conversation, and he made me feel very special to know him.

Tom is now in the loving hands of his creator, and most likely spending time with his Mother, Father, and brothers, catching up on all the family news.

Norma is still with us, and Tom can rest assure that the remaining Hill clan will make sure no harm comes to his beautiful, loving bride! He was such a devoted, selfless husband, always treating Norma like a loving, loyal, god fearing husband is supposed to treat his wife. Sixty-nine Year's, and they still held hands.

Rest In Peace Uncle Tom, for your work here on earth has been accomplished! And, thank you for all that you have done for every life you have ever touched! Even though everyone will miss you terribly, we take comfort knowing we'll all see you again some day soon!

“ Tom was a stellar guy! I always loved his kind and guiding hands. I hope the Lord has opened his arms to him. We missed him so much at Central Baptist Church. He was a true prayer warrior.
