“ *A heart of gold, a smile so bright,
An uncle's love, a guiding light.
He taught me games, he told me tales,
Through laughter, joy, and summer gales.
His gentle touch, his warm embrace,
A safe haven, a cherished space.
He saw the best in me, you see,
The best uncle, he'd always be.
Now gone from sight, but not from heart,
His memory, a work of art.
In every star that shines above,
I feel his love, his guiding dove.
Though tears may fall, I'll hold him dear,
His spirit near, forever here.
The best uncle, a life so grand,
In my heart, he'll always stand*

“ Mark and I are so deeply sorry for your loss. Butch didn't go down easy; he fought bravely and gave it all he had until the very end. He is now at peace, and although you will miss him dearly, he is in a much better place, free from suffering and pain. Remember the joyful moments you shared, as they will always keep his spirit alive in your heart. Take comfort in knowing that he is watching over you, and his love will always be with you. If you need anything during this difficult time, please don't hesitate to reach out.

I loved my Brother, he was one of a kind. Always calling to joke, tease and remember the old days in Ava. Lord, he will be missed so much! Leaving us all with a void in our hearts. He's with Mom and Dad now and at peace. Love you Butch...
