“ Almost four years and I just came across this site. We shared so many memories that it would be impossible to list them all. We grew together through the teen years into the 20's. I remember asking you to be the best man in my first wedding when you asked "Do I have to cut my hair?" When I said "no" only then did you accept. Well, you're gone and Skip's gone and the old gang is down to one. See you on the other side, love you brother.

“ Words can hardly express the sorrow we all feel for your loss, Kris. We have had the opportunity to share this wonderful man with you for several years. We will always hear his laughter and see that smile or that smirk. We hope you know he will forever remain in your heart even though at this time that is not easy to feel, but he will always be with you and looking over you as you carry on and make him proud. When he talked about you it was with a certain sound of such happiness that was the joy you two shared. We are here for you at any time, Kris. Please accept our sincerest regrets for this terrible loss.

Kris, I can't even IMAGINE your pain right now. You guys have always been so great to Clarkie and I. Mike is SO gonna be missed by SO MANY. You two always made me and Clarkie chuckle when we rode with you. Mike always growling cuz things were falling off your bike or breaking (like MINE)...you telling him that he should'a fixed it. You guys always reminded us of "the old us" and we got such a kick out of you together. There's no doubt in my mind that his spirit will live on with you and you will have an angel on your shoulder. Thinking about you all day, every day. Will see you on Friday.
