“ Dear Tim and Habiba, I am very sorry to hear of your loss, I will always remember Timothy's sense of humor, and friendly personality when he would bring Tim over to stay with Eric. Those boys were always together in their early years, and Timothy made sure they were able to keep in touch after we moved from Cambridge. My thoughts and prayers go out to you both in this difficult time.( Eric's Mom )

“ Dear Tim and Habiba, I have many memories of your Dad when I was little and you and I would spend the night at each other's homes. I always thought he was such a "cool" Dad, and recently a couple years ago I stopped by the house to see if I could get in touch with you, and I enjoyed a couple hours of catching up with your Dad. Leaving my number so that you can get in touch with me, I'm so sorry for your loss, Tim was someone I'll always remember. 740-680-2079

“ Dear Tim and family. Our prayers go out to you and your family in this season of grief over the loss of your father/husband. Although I only had the pleasure of meeting your family twice. I knew that they were good people and your dad was kind and outgoing, a person who appeared to never meet a stranger! Tim and Habiba raised a good son, and your father's legacy is evident in you. As you and your family move through these dark and sad days, remember that God always does what is best for us and He knows when we need to come home. The thoughts about Tim that cause you great sadness right now will eventually serve to help him live in your memories as the years go by. God is near those that grieve, so lean on Him through faith and he will see you through this season of sadness. Much love to you and your family as we are praying for your strength.

“ So sorry about losing Tim. I had just recently reconnected with him after Aunt Dot passed away. I will miss talking with him about family, etc. He was a very good cousin. May God bless all his family and friends and give them the courage and strength they need. Keep in touch. I will not be able to attend the funeral but my thoughts and prayers will be with you. Love you all, Aunt Janice
