Hey meme its me. Its been awhile and I'm all grown up. I'm now 22 and I have a son. And though your not here physically I know your here spiritually. I still think of you when I see a butterfly or see anything like green. I wish I'd live a life you'd be proud of but to be honest after you were gone I lost myself. You were so pure and so strong I have always looked up to you and I always will. I still sing our song " you are my sunshine my only sunshine you make me happy when sky's are grey so please don't take my sunshine away. " thank you so much for loving me and being the best meme a kid could ask for. I live my life to keep your memories going. I love you meme.

“ Tina my dear friend,
I met at the VFW in Sidney. She walked in one day and the room lit up. She was a kind, giving and loving friend. We loved to play cards together and we called her our WOO - HOO girl, she always had that big smile on her face.. Tina was a friend that no matter how long it was between phone calls, visits or emails, we could always pick up wherever we left off. She was a great friend, a great Auxiliary supporter and all around great girl.
I loved her like a sister. Keith, Xavier, Star and all the rest of Tina's family, I wish I could hug you all. Maybe you can feel , my hug as you read this. Take care, you are in our prayers.

Tinaas i sit here im kinda blank and can't understand why , Why it had to be you , I have known you since you were 9 years old and in that time we have shared alot of good times and a few bad ones but the good always out weight the bad ! NOTHING could ever break our friendship apart so with that said we will see one another again on the other side and You will always live on in my heart although you will be missed ! You were always smiling and i can still hear your laugh , you always was helping someone somewhere and this my dear friend is a rare thing to find in people these days , You sure are a one of a kind baby so i will just say goodbye till we meet again, I love you forever !
