“ With deepest sympathy on your loss. I talked to Virginia several times while waiting in the doctors office. She was a wonderful lady. I enjoyed our conversations. May God Bless and comfort Virginia's family.

*Sincerely,
Veronica McConkey*

“ I I am shocked and saddened by the passing of Virginia. Last weekend I mailed her a copy of the song I wrote when I was searching for her. I cried as I read the obituary. Although I never met her I have a large amount of genealogy papers about her. What a loss for her friends, her family, and for me.

“ In recent years I had only limited contact with Virginia. In past times we shared conversations about her beloved pets and my parents pet antics. Conversations were short but lively when pet chat was involved! I have known Pam, Charlene and more limited contacts with Dale and her husband knew my father. I always enjoyed our visits and knew her family was very involved in her care and well being. It is a sadness when hearing someone has passed. Time heals but memories help sustain us until we join again. May Virginia be at peace with her loved ones until others meet her again.
