“ I knew Virginia as the "toy lady". I met her many years ago when I lived in Pleasant City. I believe she did parties for me two different years. I never forgot her through all those years (35+). Many years ago, I wrote her a note to tell her how much she meant to me and I am so glad I did. Someday I will see her again. God bless all of you. Sincerely, Maureen Schultice (Caldwell, Oh).

“ My friend Linda, had the home all the kids wanted to hang out at. It was such a busy household but there was always room for one more. Linda's parents were great people and it was a privilege to be part of their extended family when I was growing up. "Thanks for the memories" Kathy Harding Powell
