“ I just learned of Virginia's passing yesterday. I was so shocked. Virginia was such a wonderful lady with a pure soul and kind heart. She was my cousin and she also was my godmother for my 7th grade Confirmation. It has been a while since I have seen her, but I loved her. When I was a child and teenager, I loved to visit Aunt Mag and Virginia at the farm, exploring the land and hearing about all our Kuhnash ancestors. She will be missed by many.

“ When I was a very little girl, Virginia (then Virginia Fogle) was a dental hygentist for my late father and late grandfather Drs. Brodie G. Secrest. Sr. & Jr. She shared the same birthday with my grandfather of November 2nd and for my father was charming, bouncy and cheerful just what any patient would need when going to the dentist. She could put any patient at ease.

My father and grandfather were big fans of hers as was my mother, brother and I. My two youngest siblings would have been tiny at the time. Weren't we all so very lucky to have had her in our lives and wasn't Cambridge and the surrounding area lucky to have her as well.

My thoughts and prayers go out to her entire family and all her loving friends.

“ *Jennifer, I remember when you and Judy took me to meet Virginia out at your house. That was years ago. I still remember how much fun it was to learn how to play three or four chords on that tenor banjo and play along with your moms piano playing. I really enjoyed that. She was a very talented women. “ I remember as a child how we loved Virginia. She always drove a cool car and dressed sp classy. She was always so sweet with Shirley and I as we were the babies of the family. She sure could make a banjo sing and she sang as well. We get our love for animals honest. We will miss her and I will never forget her wonderful laugh.
