“JoEllen and Denny, what a wonderful Mother and a gracious friend to me the short time that I worked on the house next door getting it ready to rent. She invited me for lunch several times, and once she said, John if you gather some dandelion greens, I'll fix us a salad for lunch. One of the best salads that I've ever enjoyed.

“As a childhood friend of her daughter, I will always remember Mrs. James as a soft spoken, gracious lady who opened her home to Jo's friends with a smile and some great sloppy joes! She was a lovely person.

Joellen and Denny, I am so sorry for your loss. Wanda had a great life and children who loved her. I will always remember the days and nights spent at the James' home and how lovely Wanda was to all of us girls.
