“ I knew Warren when he was our neighbor, bus driver, friend. I remember him coming to our house and asking if anyone could drive a tractor. I said I will. (I did not know how to drive it but I learned). We baled square bales of hay that day.. He was always willing to lend a helping hand.. One of my late brother's best friends, John Mike Carter... Now they can go fishing in heaven together... Rest in Peace.....

I have so many great memories going to see him and Betty on the farm. The cook outs, birthday parties, picking fresh green beans, and the amazing homemade ice cream that him and my father use to make. I'm sure that my dad and him are catching up on the good times they were together. God Bless the Smith family. You were truly a blessing to our family.
