“ I am away from Ohio for an extended period and learned today of Wib's passing. I worked closely with him for several years at East Guernsey Schools when serving as technical director. Wib was extremely competent with his work and always brought a cheerful and confident attitude every visit. I would always go with him as he went about his work as he would take time to explain things to me so I could advance my learning. He was very patient and had a great way of explaining complicated issues to make them understandable. To this day when I am doing something technical I think of him when I apply something he taught me. Please accept my sympathy at the passing of this wonderful man.

“ Sorry to hear of your loss. Even though Wilbur and I are cousins, during our adult life we never got to spend anytime together. I know he suffered with diabetes his whole life. I remember when he was maybe 4, giving himself shots. It was amazing he could do this at such a young age. I know he will be missed by many, especially his family which he always talked about when we did bump into each other. Again sorry for your loss and prayers be with you.

“ I only spoke with Wib this school year once. He didnt sound well but was still working. Often, being in close proximity, i would visit his office vs a phone call. Unfortunately i never got the chance this summer. We at Rolling Hills will miss him.

“ A friend of mine passed away today. I will always cherish our phone conversations, our laughs, our crazy stories. When I was down, he was only a phone call away. When I needed to vent, he lent an ear. Wib, you were such a warrior. You continued on even when your frail body tried to slow you down.

So many days, weeks, and years. So precious is our life here on earth. So dear are our friends. May your family find peace in your wonderful memories, my dear friend. May your kindness and wisdom be passed on to those you leave behind. Be at peace. You will be truly, truly missed.

I am a coworker of Wib's but I work at the Steubenville office. I only saw Wib once a month at staff meetings but he was a nice man. He was always so kind and gentle. We will miss him.

Life is the greatest gift that God has given us. Death is only a bridge towards eternal life with God. Certainly heaven is rejoicing for Wib's has finally reached his true home.

God Bless Wib and your family.
