“ I have many fond memories of Uncle Bill. One of them was shortly after they moved to the house on Stewart avenue. I don't remember how old I was at the time, but Uncle Bill asked if I wanted to drive the Wheel Horse. He put it in gear and off I went. I couldn't control the speed, I just had to make sure I didn't run out of "road" as I drove around the back yard between the garage and house. After I had my fill of driving, I had to get Uncle Bill to run up to the Wheel Horse and stop it.
