“ I used to play basketball with Bill on Saturday mornings at the Muskingum College gym when we were in high school. There were a bunch of us and we always had lots of fun. I remember going to a game there and sitting next to Bill where I got a big surprise. I happened to look down the court and saw through the edge of his glasses and couldn't believe how clear things became. It was then that I realized I needed glasses. Thanks, Bill.
